

Redacted Indictment given to Sup.

engaging in any activity prohibited by law and to refrain from being paid or accepting payment of any fee, emolument or perquisite other than the salary and expenses provided by law. As judges of the Court of Common Pleas, the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan also owed a fiduciary duty to the citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and to the Judiciary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to recuse themselves from matters in which they had a personal, financial or other material vested interest and were required to file an annual statement of financial interests with the Administrative Office of the Pennsylvania Courts, reporting the source of any income, direct or indirect.

B. THE ENTERPRISE

3. At all times material to this Superseding Indictment, the Court of Common Pleas for Luzerne County, part of the Judicial Branch of the government of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, as established by Article 5 of the Pennsylvania Constitution and by the Pennsylvania Judicial Code, constituted an "enterprise" as defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 1961(4) (hereinafter referred to as "the Enterprise"). The Enterprise was engaged in, and its activities affected, interstate commerce.

C. THE PURPOSE OF THE RACKETEERING ACTIVITY

4. The defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan abused their positions within the Enterprise to enrich themselves by improperly taking bribes, kickbacks, extortionate payments and other things of value from individuals and organizations doing business with the enterprise.

D. MANNER, MEANS AND METHODS

5. Between approximately June of 2000 and January 1, 2007, the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan abused their positions within the enterprise and violated the fiduciary duty they owed to the citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and to the Judiciary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by secretly deriving more than $2,800,000 in income, in addition to the compensation to which they were lawfully entitled, in exchange for their official actions and anticipated official actions. The actions from which they derived improper income included, but were not limited to: entering into agreements guaranteeing placement of juvenile offenders with PA Child Care, LLC (hereinafter referred to as "PA Child Care") and Western PA Child Care, LLC (hereinafter referred to as "Western PA Child Care"); taking official action to remove funding from the Luzerne County Court budget for the Luzerne County juvenile detention facility, effectively closing the county-run youth detention center; facilitating the construction of juvenile detention facilities and an expansion to one of those facilities by PA Child Care and Western PA Child Care; directing that juvenile offenders be lodged at juvenile detention facilities operated by PA Child Care and Western PA Child Care; summarily granting motions to seal the record and for injunctive relief in a civil case related to PA Child Care; and, through their actions, assisting Pa Child Care and Western PA Child Care to secure agreements with Luzerne County worth tens of millions of dollars for the placement of juvenile offenders, including an agreement in late 2004 worth approximately $58,000,000.

6. The defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, Jr. and Michael T. Conahan employed a number of schemes in an attempt to hide the income they had received through bribes, kickbacks and extortion including, but not limited to, causing income in the form of cash, checks and wire transfers to pass through intermediaries and causing false records to be created.

7. In approximately June of 2000, the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR., whose duties then included presiding over juvenile proceedings as a judge of the Court of Common Pleas for Luzerne County, had discussions with an attorney who had a law practice in Luzerne County, hereinafter referred to as "PARTICIPANT #1," who was interested in constructing a juvenile detention facility in Luzerne County. Defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. introduced PARTICIPANT #1 to a contractor (hereinafter referred to as "PARTICIPANT #2") who was a friend of defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR., for the purpose of locating land for the juvenile facility and for constructing the facility.

8. PARTICIPANT #1 and another person, doing business as PA Child Care, acquired land in Luzerne County and entered into an agreement with PARTICIPANT #2 to construct a juvenile detention center to be operated by PA Child Care.

9. On or about January 29, 2002, Michael T. Conahan, acting in his capacity as President Judge of Luzerne County, signed a "Placement Guarantee Agreement" between PA Child Care and the Court of Common Pleas for Luzerne County to house juvenile offenders at the PA Child Care facility. The "Placement Guarantee Agreement" provided that the Court of Common Pleas for Luzerne County would pay PA Child Care the annual "Rental Installment" sum of $1,314,000 and stipulated that "[t]he obligation of the Court to make payment of the Rental Installments shall be absolute and unconditional." PARTICIPANT #1 used the guarantee to obtain construction financing for the PA Child Care facility.

10. In or about December, 2002, Michael T. Conahan, acting in his capacity as President Judge of Luzerne County, took official action to remove funding from the Luzerne County Court budget for the Luzerne County juvenile detention facility. The practical effect of this action was to close the Luzerne County youth detention center.

11. In or before January of 2003, defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan arranged to receive a kickback payment in the amount of $997,600 in connection with the roles they played as judges in accomplishing the construction of the PA Child Care juvenile detention facility.

12. In order to conceal the $997,600 payment to defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan, PARTICIPANT #1 and PARTICIPANT #2 signed a written "Registration and Commission Agreement" prepared by PARTICIPANT #2 and backdated to February 19, 2002, which purported to be an agreement for PARTICIPANT #2 to pay a broker's fee of $997,600 to PARTICIPANT #1. In fact, however, a large portion of the money was paid to defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan.

13. MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan engaged in a series of financial transactions, over time, designed to conceal the $997,600 payment made to them. On January 21, 2003, $610,000 was wire transferred by PARTICIPANT #2 to an attorney trust account of an attorney other than PARTICIPANT #1. The remaining $387,600 was wire transferred by PARTICIPANT #2 to a bank account under the control of PARTICIPANT #1.

14. Thereafter, on January 28, 2003, the $610,000 in the attorney trust account was wire transferred to a bank account of Beverage Marketing of PA, Inc., a business entity controlled by Michael T. Conahan.

15. In a series of financial transactions thereafter, a portion of the $610,000 payment was passed from Michael T. Conahan to defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. For example, on or about January 28, 2003, Michael T. Conahan directed that $330,000 of the $610,000 be wire transferred to a bank account controlled by the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR.; on or about April 30, 2003, Michael T. Conahan directed that an additional $75,000 of the $610,000 be wire transferred to a bank account controlled by the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR.; on or about July 15, 2003, Michael T. Conahan directed that an additional $75,000 of the $610,000 wire transferred to a bank account under the control of the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR.; on or about August 13, 2003, Michael T. Conahan directed that an additional $25,000 of the $610,000 be wire transferred to a bank account under the control of a third party; and, on or about August 20, 2003, Michael T. Conahan directed that an additional $105,000 of the $610,000 be transferred to a bank account under the control of Michael T. Conahan.

16. To conceal the payments to defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan, Michael T. Conahan directed that false entries be made in the books and records of Beverage Marketing of PA, Inc.

17. To further conceal the $997,600 payment made to MARK A.

CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan, a portion of the $387,600 wire transfer made by PARTICIPANT #2 to PARTICIPANT #1 on January 28, 2003, was paid to MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan in a series of financial transactions which occurred over time. One of those transactions occurred on or about August 29, 2003, when a check in the amount of $326,000, drawn on a bank account under the control of PARTICIPANT #1, was deposited into a bank account maintained in the name of the wife of Michael T. Conahan and under the control of Michael T. Conahan.

18. Due to the success of the juvenile detention facility operated in Luzerne County, PARTICIPANT #1 and his partner, doing business as Western PA Child Care, constructed a juvenile detention facility in western Pennsylvania. PARTICIPANT #2, the same contractor who built the facility in Luzerne County, was employed to construct the Western PA Child Care facility. In July of 2005, upon completion of construction, a $1,000,000 payment was made by PARTICIPANT #1 to defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan.

19. In order to conceal the payment to defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan, PARTICIPANT #1 and PARTICIPANT #2 signed a written "Registration and Commission Agreement" prepared by PARTICIPANT #2 which purported to be an agreement for PARTICIPANT #2 to pay a broker's fee of $1,000,000 to PARTICIPANT #1. In fact, however, the money was wire transferred by PARTICIPANT #2 to a bank account of the Pinnacle Group of Jupiter, LLC, a business entity owned by the wives of MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan.

20. PARTICIPANT #1 and his partner, doing business as PA Child Care, constructed an addition to the juvenile detention facility in Luzerne County. PARTICIPANT #2, the same contractor who built the facility, was employed to complete the expansion project and, in February of 2006, upon completion of construction of the addition, a $150,000 payment was made to defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan.

21. In order to conceal the payment to defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan, PARTICIPANT #1 and PARTICIPANT #2 signed a written "Registration and Commission Agreement" prepared by PARTICIPANT #2 which purported to be an agreement for PARTICIPANT #2 to pay a broker's fee of $150,000 to PARTICIPANT #1. In fact, however, the money was wire transferred by PARTICIPANT #2 to a bank account of the Pinnacle Group of Jupiter, LLC, a business entity owned by the wives of MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan but controlled by MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan.

22. In approximately February of 2003, when construction of the PA Child Care juvenile detention facility was completed, defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR., in his capacity as a juvenile court judge, began directing that youthful offenders be sent to that facility. Between approximately February of 2003 and January 1, 2007, the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. And Michael T. Conahan demanded and received from PARTICIPANT #1 hundreds of thousands of dollars in payments for their past and anticipated future official actions relating to PA Child Care and Western PA Child Care and took steps to conceal and disguise the nature, location, source, ownership and control of the money paid by PARTICIPANT #1.

23. Some of the payments were made by checks drawn on one or more bank accounts under the control of PARTICIPANT #1 and were made payable to the Pinnacle Group of Jupiter, LLC. The payments included, but were not necessarily limited to, the following: $18,000 paid on or about January 13, 2004; $52,000 paid on or about January 13, 2004; $78,000 paid on or about February 15, 2004; $75,000 paid on or about February 15, 2004; $47,000 paid on or about February 15, 2004; $75,000 paid on or about April 30, 2004; and $25,000 paid on or about April 30, 2004.

24. To conceal the payments to defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan, PARTICIPANT #1 made false notations on the checks and Michael T. Conahan directed that false entries be made in the books and records of Pinnacle Group of Jupiter, LLC and Beverage Marketing of PA, Inc.

25. In addition to payments by check, some of the payments were made by wire transfers made from one or more bank accounts under the control of PARTICIPANT #1 and were transferred to an account under the control of the Pinnacle Group of Jupiter, LLC. The payments included, but were not necessarily limited to, the following: $120,000 transferred on July 12, 2004; and $100,000 transferred on September 23, 2004.

26. Additional payments to the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan from PARTICIPANT #1 were cash payments. Those cash payments included, but were not necessarily limited to, the following: $42,000 paid on or about August 16, 2006; $20,000 paid on or about November 1, 2006; $50,000 paid on or about November 20, 2006; $31,500 paid on or about December 18, 2006.

27. In order to conceal the more than $2,800,000 in unlawful payments they received, the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan knowingly and intentionally filed materially false annual statements of financial interests with the Administrative Office of the Pennsylvania Courts in which they failed to disclose the source of these payments and in which they failed to disclose to the public and to parties appearing before them their financial relationship with PARTICIPANT #1, PARTICIPANT #2, PA Child Care and Western PA Child Care, all of which were material matters.

E. THE PATTERN OF RACKETEERING ACTIVITY

28. The pattern of racketeering activity, as defined in Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1961(1) and (5), through which the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan conducted and participated in the conduct of the affairs of the enterprise, included the following racketeering acts:

k. Racketeering Act Eleven - ($50,000 Paid to Conahan and Ciavarella on November 20, 2006)

59. In furtherance of the offense, the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan, committed the following acts, any one of which alone constitutes Racketeering Act Eleven.

i. RACKETEERING ACT 11.1 (Extortion Under Color of Official Right - Cash Payment of $50,000)

60. On or about November 20, 2006, in the Middle District of Pennsylvania, and elsewhere, the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan did knowingly, intentionally and wilfully affect, and attempt to affect, interstate commerce and the movement of articles and commodities in commerce by extortion, as those terms are defined in Title 18, United States Code, § 1951; that is, the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan obtained property from another, namely, cash in the amount of $50,000, which was transferred from PARTICIPANT #1, not due the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T.

Conahan or their office, with that other's consent, under color of official right, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, § 1951.

- ii. RACKETEERING ACT 11.2 (Bribery Chargeable Under State Law - Cash Payment of $50,000)

61. On or about November 20, 2006, in the Middle District of Pennsylvania, and elsewhere, the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan did knowingly commit bribery, that is, the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan solicited, accepted and agreed to accept from another, namely PARTICIPANT #1, monetary benefits consisting of cash in the amount of $50,0000, which was transferred by PARTICIPANT #1, as consideration for violations of known legal duties of the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan as public servants, in violation of Title 18, Pa.C.S. § 4701(a)(3).

1. Racketeering Act Twelve - ($31,500 Paid to Conahan and Ciavarella on December 18, 2006)

62. In furtherance of the offense, the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan, committed the following acts, any one of which alone constitutes Racketeering Act Twelve.

- i. RACKETEERING ACT 12.1 (Extortion Under Color of Official Right - Cash Payment of $31,500)

63. On or about December 18, 2006, in the Middle District of Pennsylvania, and elsewhere, the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan did knowingly, intentionally and wilfully affect, and attempt to affect, interstate commerce and the movement of articles and commodities in commerce by extortion, as those terms are defined in Title 18, United States Code, § 1951; that is, the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan obtained property from another, namely, cash in the amount of $31,500, which was transferred from PARTICIPANT #1, not due the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. - m. Racketeering Act Thirteen (Money Laundering Conspiracy)

65. From in or about December, 2001 to on or about September 9, 2009, in the Middle District of Pennsylvania, and elsewhere, the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T.

Conahan did knowingly, intentionally and wilfully combine, conspire, confederate and agree together with one another, and together with other persons both known and unknown to the grand jury, to commit the following offense against the United States, namely, to knowingly conduct and attempt to conduct a financial transaction affecting interstate commerce which involved the proceeds of a specified unlawful activity, knowing that the transaction was designed in whole and in part to conceal and disguise the nature, location, source, ownership and control of the proceeds of said specified unlawful activity and that while conducting and attempting to conduct such financial transaction knew that the property involved in the financial transaction represented the proceeds of some form of unlawful activity, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, § 1956(h).

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, §§ 2 and 1962(c).

18 U.S.C. § 1962(d)
(Racketeering Conspiracy)

THE GRAND JURY FURTHER CHARGES:

66. The allegations contained in Count 1 of this Superseding Indictment are hereby re-alleged and incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein.

67. From on or about December, 2001, the exact date being unknown, to on or about the date of this Superseding Indictment, in the Middle District of Pennsylvania, and elsewhere, the defendant, and Michael T. Conahan, together with other persons known and unknown to the grand jury, being persons employed by and associated with an Enterprise, which Enterprise engaged in, and the activities of which affected, interstate and foreign commerce, did knowingly and intentionally combine, conspire, confederate and agree to violate 18 U.S.C. § 1962(c), that is, to conduct and participate, directly and indirectly, in the conduct of the affairs of the Enterprise through a pattern of racketeering activity, that is, through the commission of the racketeering acts specified in Count 1 of this Superseding Indictment, among others.

68. As part of the conspiracy, the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan did agree that they and their coconspirators would commit at least two acts of racketeering activity which amounted to a pattern of racketeering activity in the conduct of the affairs of the Enterprise.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, § 1962(d).

Counts 3-6

18 U.S.C. §§ 1343, 1346 and 2)
(Honest Services Wire Fraud)

THE GRAND JURY FURTHER CHARGES:

69. The allegations contained in Counts 1 and 2 of this Superseding Indictment are hereby re-alleged and incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein.

70. From in or about June, 2000, the exact date being unknown to the grand jury, to on or about the date of the filing of this Superseding Indictment, in the Middle District of Pennsylvania, and elsewhere, the defendant,

and Michael T. Conahan, each aiding and abetting the other and each aided and abetted by the other and by other persons known and unknown, devised and intended to devise a material scheme and artifice to defraud the citizens of Luzerne County, the citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the Judiciary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and to deprive those citizens and the judiciary of their right to the honest and faithful services of MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan as judges of the Court of Common Pleas for Luzerne County, through bribery, kickbacks, and the concealment of material information.

PURPOSE OF THE SCHEME

71. The purpose of the scheme and artifice was for the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan to secretly use their official position as judges to enrich themselves by soliciting and accepting gifts, payments, and other things of value from persons and entities conducting business with the Court of Common Pleas for Luzerne County in exchange for favorable official action, and for the persons and entities to enrich themselves by secretly obtaining favorable action for themselves through corrupt means.

THE RIGHT TO HONEST SERVICES

72. At all times material to this Superseding Indictment, the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan were elected judges of the Court of Common Pleas for Luzerne County, Pennsylvania and as such were public officials. The defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan owed a fiduciary duty to the public and to the Judiciary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania: to refrain from realizing personal financial gain through their office other than compensation provided by law; to refrain from conduct that constitutes bribery and kickbacks; to refrain from seeking or accepting improper influence; to recuse themselves from matters in which they have a financial or other material interest; and to file a truthful and complete annual statement of financial interests, reporting the sources of all income, direct or indirect.

73. Part of the fiduciary duty owed by the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan arose from constitutional law, including, Article 5, §§ 17(b) and 17(c) of the Pennsylvania Constitution.

74. Part of the fiduciary duty owed by the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan, independent of constitutional or statutory law, arose from their positions as judges of the Court of Common Pleas, including requirements of the Pennsylvania Code of Judicial Conduct and Administrative Orders of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court regarding matters related to Judges of the Court of Common Pleas. Among other things, the fiduciary duty owed by the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan included the duty arising from their positions as judges to disclose material information affecting their ability to engage in impartial decision-making.

MANNER, MEANS AND METHODS

75. It was a part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that the defendant agreed together with Michael Conahan, and with others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, to engage in the course of conduct alleged in the "MANNER, MEANS AND METHODS OF THE DEFENDANTS" section of Count 1 of this Superseding Indictment. Those allegations are hereby re-alleged and incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein. As further described herein, the defendant defrauded the citizens of Luzerne County, the citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the Judiciary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and deprived those citizens and the Judiciary of their right to the honest services of the defendant by: (1) engaging in undisclosed biased decision-making for personal gain; and, (2) knowingly soliciting, extorting and accepting bribes and kickbacks as part of a generalized agreement to improperly exert influence on behalf of the bribe and kickback payers as specific opportunities arose to do so.

76. It was further a part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that, during public statements and appearances, Michael T. Conahan and defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. used their office and authority as judges to advocate the cessation of operations at a county-run juvenile detention facility thereby advancing the interests of PARTICIPANT #1, PARTICIPANT #2, PA Child Care and Western PA Child Care.

77. It was further a part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan took steps to hide, conceal, and cover up their activity and the nature of their dealings with PARTICIPANT #1, PARTICIPANT #2, PA Child Care and Western PA Child Care. For example, they knowingly and intentionally filed materially false annual statements of financial interests with the Administrative Office of the Pennsylvania Courts in which they failed to disclose the source of income they had received from bribes and kickbacks and in which they failed to disclose their financial relationship with PARTICIPANT #1, PARTICIPANT #2, PA Child Care and Western PA Child Care, which were material matters.

78. It was further a part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan, acting on behalf of the Court of Common Pleas for Luzerne County in matters in which they had discretionary decision-making authority, knowingly and intentionally issued written, oral and wire communications which were materially false to the extent that they did not disclose their conflict of interest and their financial relationship with PARTICIPANT #1, PARTICIPANT #2, PA Child Care and Western PA Child Care, which were material matters.

79. It was further a part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan, acting on behalf of the Court of Common Pleas for Luzerne County in matters in which they had discretionary decision-making authority, knowingly and intentionally issued reports and statements to the Administrative Office of the Pennsylvania Courts which were materially false to the extent that they did not disclose their conflict of interest and their financial relationship with PARTICIPANT #1 PARTICIPANT #2, PA Child Care and Western PA Child Care, which were material matters.

80. It was further a part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that Michael T. Conahan entered into agreements guaranteeing placement of juvenile offenders with PA Child Care and Western PA Child Care and took official action to remove funding from the Luzerne County Court budget for the Luzerne County juvenile detention facility. The defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan, through their actions, facilitated the construction of juvenile detention facilities and an expansion to one of those facilities by PA Child Care and Western PA Child Care and directed that juvenile offenders be lodged at juvenile detention facilities operated by PA Child Care and Western PA Child Care. Through their actions, the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan assisted Pa Child Care and Western PA Child Care to secure agreements with Luzerne County worth tens of millions of dollars for the placement of juvenile offenders, including an agreement in late 2004 worth approximately $58,000,000.

In his capacity as President Judge, Michael T. Conahan took actions relating to proceedings involving juvenile offenders who were sent to PA Child Care and Western PA Child Care facilities. The foregoing actions, as well as other actions, of the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan related to matters in which they had discretionary decision-making authority. The defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan took these actions, and other actions, without recusing themselves from matters in which they had a conflict of interest and without disclosing to parties involved in court proceedings, and to the Administrative Office of the Pennsylvania Courts, their conflict of interest and the financial relationship that existed between them and PARTICIPANT #1, PARTICIPANT #2, PA Child Care and Western PA Child Care, which were material matters.

81. It was further a part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan violated their duties of independence, impartiality and integrity in the exercise of their discretionary actions on behalf of the Court of Common Pleas for Luzerne County by failing to recuse themselves from acting in matters in which they had a material conflict of interest and in failing to disclose to parties appearing before the court and to the Administrative

Office of the Pennsylvania Courts their conflict of interest and their financial relationship with PARTICIPANT #1, PARTICIPANT #2, PA Child Care and Western PA Child Care, which were material matters.

83. It was further a part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T.

Conahan otherwise conducted the affairs of the Court of Common Pleas, in matters in which they had discretionary decision-making authority, without disclosing their conflict of interest and financial relationship with PARTICIPANT #1, PARTICIPANT #2, PA Child Care and Western PA Child Care, knowing that these were material matters that should have been disclosed to parties appearing before the court, to the Administrative Office of Courts and to other persons and entities.

84. It was further a part of the scheme and artifice to defraud that the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan knowingly solicited, extorted and accepted bribes and kickbacks as part of a generalized agreement to improperly exert influence on behalf of PARTICIPANT #1, PA Child Care and Western PA Child Care as specific opportunities arose to do so. For instance, as part of the scheme and artifice to defraud, Michael T. Conahan summarily granted a motion to seal the record and for injunctive relief in a civil case related to PA Child Care.

The effect of the aforementioned actions, among other actions, of defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan was favorable and beneficial to PARTICIPANT #1, PARTICIPANT #2, PA Child Care and Western PA Child Care since the actions led to the closure of the Luzerne County youth detention center which thereby created a need for the construction and operation of juvenile detention facilities by PA Child Care and Western PA Child; resulted in the placement of juveniles in facilities operated by PA Child Care and Western PA Child Care; and otherwise promoted the interests of PARTICIPANT #1, PARTICIPANT #2, PA Child Care and Western PA Child Care.

EXECUTION OF THE SCHEME

85. On or about the date of each count listed below, in the Middle District of Pennsylvania and elsewhere, the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan, each aiding and abetting the other and each aided and abetted by the other and by other persons known and unknown, for the purpose of executing the above-described material scheme and artifice to defraud and deprive the citizens of Luzerne County, the citizens of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the Judiciary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania of their right to the honest services of the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan, transmitted and caused to be transmitted by means of wire communication in interstate commerce, the following writings, signals and sounds:

Counts 11-20

18 U.S.C. § 666(a)(1)(B)
(Corrupt Receipt of Bribe/Reward for Official Action Concerning Programs Receiving Federal Funds)

THE GRAND JURY FURTHER CHARGES:

89. The allegations contained in Counts 1 through 10 of this Superseding Indictment are hereby re-alleged and incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein.

90. As elected judges of the Court of Common Pleas for Luzerne County the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan were agents of a number of government entities, including, but not limited to, the State of Pennsylvania, Luzerne County, the Luzerne County Court of Common Pleas and the Administrative Office of the Pennsylvania Courts, a government agency of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that employed the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan as judges.

91. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Luzerne County and the Court of Common Pleas for Luzerne County each received federal assistance in excess of $10,000 during each one-year period beginning on January 1, 2002 and extending through December 31, 2007.

92. Between on or about January 1, 2002 and on or about January 1, 2007, in the Middle District of Pennsylvania, and

MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR.

and Michael T. Conahan, each aiding and abetting the other and each aided and abetted by the other and by other persons known and unknown, did knowingly, intentionally and corruptly solicit and demand for their own benefit, and did accept, and agree to accept, from another person, multiple monetary payments in amounts of more than $5,000, intending to be influenced and rewarded in connection with the business of the government entities they represented as judges of the Court of Common Pleas for Luzerne County. In particular, payments were made to and accepted by the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan in connection with official actions taken and intended to be taken by the defendant MARK A. CIAVARELLA, JR. and Michael T. Conahan to facilitate the planning, construction and operation of juvenile detention facilities owned, constructed and operated by PA Child Care and Western PA Child Care.
